CPD title:

Door Furniture and the DDA BS 8300: 2001 and Approved Document M

Seminar details

This seminar highlights perceived problems with DDA, BS 8300:2001 and Part M of the Building Regulations relating to door furniture, and offers solutions. It looks at these three statutory requirements - where we are, and how we got there. Some time is also spent discussing what is “reasonable” regarding Document M; and what are Light Reflectance Values and why they exist.
